HAYGROUND SCHOOL RECEIVES

$208,000 GRANT

The school, based in Bridgehampton, has been awarded a $208,000 educational grant from the Leon Levy Foundation. It is the third grant Hayground has received from the Leon Levy Foundation.

John Bernstein, president of the Leon Levy Foundation, said, "Hayground creates a unique learning environment that encourages independent thinking and innovative problem-solving. We are pleased to renew our contribution to this fine school."

The grant will ensure that important programs, which began through the foundation's initial grant in 2010, will continue.
